

Thinking About Geothermal?

A geothermal system uses the earth's temperature to heat and cool your building, lowering carbon emissions and your utility bill.

The 2022 Inflation Reduction Act offers a 30% tax credit for the complete cost of installing a geothermal system for your facility.

Learn more:

DaneClimateAction.org/What-You-Can-Do/Federal-Funding

Did you know that a geothermal heat pump can reduce your utility bills by more than 25%? There are examples of successful geothermal projects across Wisconsin. And with the recent passage of the Inflation Reduction Act you are eligible for up to a 30% tax credit for all project expenses, with no maximum. Rebates from Focus on Energy are also available.

Federal tax credits are claimed when filing your federal taxes. Curious about installing a geothermal system? Learn more about which system is right for you.